Mr Tait agreed to take 100 students into the Junior Intermediate Class as a temporary measure this year, the number to include a few students who have not obtained promotion to the Senior Intermediate Class.

2 He said that there was not room in the Laboratories for all the boys to work simultaneously & that it would therefore be necessary for a batch to take their practical work in physics, chemistry on Sundays. They would necessitate two demonstrators & 6 servants working on Sundays, & he suggested that an allce of 10 Rs per demonstrator & of 1 Re per peon should be given.

3 He also said that an English Tutor to assist in correcting Composition exercises should be given to the College as a permanent measure, but the Dewan said that the place might be temporary for the present.

4 The Dewan agreed considered

With reference to your D O letter No 592 I think that when an Assistant Professor or a Demonstrator is called upon to work seven days a week instead of six the allowance for the Sunday work should be one-sixth of his pay The amount which I proposed at first was calculated on the assumption that the work would be done by a demonstrator on Rs 70 I trust that Government will sanction the increased allowance as the sum originally proposed is not sufficient for those who are now doing the work

I was assured last July that those who had to do extra work would be treated liberally
